MINOR IN CHINESE LANGUAGE AND LITERATURE

Chinese is the most-spoken language in the world, and with China’s increasing presence on the world stage, being proficient in Chinese has many advantages. Through GW’s program in Chinese Language and Literature, you will be well equipped with an oral and written proficiency in Chinese and an understanding of Chinese history, literature, and culture. You’ll even study with world-renowned scholars, including Professor of Chinese Jonathan Chaves, a prominent author and lecturer on Chinese and Japanese culture and poetry. Seeking excellence and aiming to prepare our students for real-world tasks linguistically and culturally, you’ll build a solid Chinese language foundation that benefits your lifelong learning. Our graduates enter fields such as international diplomacy, international business, the U.S. Foreign Service, and education – they go on to work at agencies such as the CIA or U.S. State Department.
