MASTER OF ARTS IN THE FIELD OF ENGLISH

GW’s master of arts in English is ideal for students interested in deepening their knowledge of Anglophone literature while sharpening their skills in close reading and incisive writing. The program offers comprehensive training in critical theory as well as literary and cultural studies, exposing students to a diversity of texts within a global and transnational context.

A large faculty serves a small student body to allow for close interaction and mentoring at every stage of graduate study. Students are immersed in the cultural and literary opportunities that the nation’s capital has to offer, from internships with institutions like the Folger Shakespeare Library to research opportunities at the museums of the Smithsonian Institution.

Over the course of the two-year program, students develop relationships with fellow students and faculty mentors. They also have the option to pursue a thesis or non-thesis track, depending on their interests and professional goals. All students are invited to follow engaging department seminars on a wide array of topics, as well as take courses through the Washington Metropolitan Area Consortium of Universities.

Visit the program website (https://english.columbian.gwu.edu/ma-english/) for additional information.
