MASTER OF ARTS IN THE FIELD OF JEWISH CULTURAL ARTS

The Columbian College of Arts and Sciences offers a master of arts degree program in Jewish cultural arts. The program prepares students for careers in the management of museums, theaters, Young Men’s Hebrew Associations, Jewish community centers, and foundations, as well as Jewish film, dance, literary, and music festivals. The degree is also designed to enhance the skills of professionals already in the field. The program combines the practical with the academic, providing students with the hands-on skills and intellectual capital to respond in innovative ways to new opportunities in the field of Jewish culture.

Specific admission requirements are shown on the Graduate Program Finder. (http://www.gwu.edu/all-graduate-programs)

Visit the Judaic Studies webpage (http://judaic.columbian.gwu.edu/master-arts-jewish-cultural-arts) for more information about the program.

REQUIREMENTS

The following requirements must be fulfilled:

The general requirements stated under Columbian College of Arts and Sciences, Graduate Programs (http://bulletin.gwu.edu/arts-sciences/#degreeeregulationtext).

36 credits, including 18 credits in required courses and 18 credits in elective courses.