

GRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN MUSEUM STUDIES

The graduate certificate in museum studies is intended primarily for international museum professionals who wish to study museum administration, collections management, or exhibition development in the United States. The certificate program also is available to U.S. students who hold at least a master's degree in an appropriate subject.

Visit the program website (<https://corcoran.gwu.edu/graduate-certificate-museum-studies/>) for additional information.

REQUIREMENTS

The following requirements must be fulfilled: 18 credits, including 12 credits in elective courses and two 3-credit internships.

Code	Title	Credits
Required
12 credits from the following
MSTD 6101	Museum Management
MSTD 6102	Nonprofit Fiscal Management
MSTD 6103	Leading Change
MSTD 6104	Managing People and Projects
MSTD 6201	Introduction to Museum Collections
MSTD 6202	Museum Collections Management
MSTD 6203	Preventive Conservation Concepts
MSTD 6204	Preventive Conservation Techniques
MSTD 6301	Museum Exhibitions: Curatorial Research
MSTD 6302	Museum Exhibition Design
MSTD 6304	Museum Exhibition Development
MSTD 6305	Visitor Perspectives: Museum Evaluation in Exhibitions
MSTD 6701	Museum History and Theory
MSTD 6710
Internship requirement:
MSTD 6501	Museum Internship (taken for 6 credits)	