The Department of Philosophy offers a dual bachelor of arts with a major in philosophy (public affairs focus) and master of arts in public policy with a concentration in philosophy and social policy degree program. Undergraduate students may take up to 9 graduate credits as part of their undergraduate degree program, thereby decreasing the number of credits normally required for the master’s degree. Undergraduate students interested in the BA/MA program should consult the Director of Graduate Studies as early in their program as possible and must apply to the graduate portion of the program before completing 75 undergraduate credits.

Visit the program website for additional information.