The Women's Studies program offers combined bachelor of arts with a major in women’s, gender, and sexuality studies and master of arts in the field of women’s, gender, and sexuality studies or in the field of public policy–women’s, gender, and sexuality studies degree programs. Undergraduate students take a specified number of graduate credits as part of their degree program, thereby decreasing the number of credits normally required for the master’s degree.

Students interested in either of these combined degree programs should consult the Women's, Gender, and Sexuality Studies Program office (http://womensstudies.columbian.gwu.edu) for requirements by the beginning of their junior year.