MASTER OF ARTS IN THE FIELD OF WOMEN'S STUDIES

Specific admission requirements are shown on the Graduate Program Finder (http://www.gwu.edu/all-graduate-programs)

Prerequisite: a bachelor’s degree from an accredited college or university.

The following requirements must be fulfilled:

Required:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Course</th>
<th>Title</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>WSTU 6220</td>
<td>Fundamentals of Feminist Theory (or alternative approved by advisor)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>WSTU 6221</td>
<td>Research Issues in Women's Studies</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>WSTU 6225</td>
<td>Contemporary Feminist Theory (or alternative approved by advisor)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

12 credits in a discipline or topical concentration approved by advisor

9 additional elective credits

One of the following options:

Option A

WSTU 6998  Thesis Research

WSTU 6999  Thesis Research

Option B

WSTU 6283  Practicum in Women's Studies (for 6 credits)

Option C

WSTU 6295  Independent Research in Women's Studies (plus 3 credits of WSTU 6283)

All candidates are required to pass a Master’s Comprehensive Examination.