

DOCTOR OF PHILOSOPHY IN THE FIELD OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION, ACCOUNTANCY CONCENTRATION

The doctoral program in business administration with a concentration in accountancy prepares students to engage in high-quality research and pursue careers as faculty members at top academic research institutions. Students engage with complex accounting issues, learning to apply advanced analytical methods and empirical techniques. The program fosters a collaborative environment where students work closely with experienced faculty, gaining insights into the intricacies of accounting research. Program graduates emerge as well-equipped experts, ready to contribute significantly to the accounting field through innovative research, teaching excellence, and thought leadership. Program alumni have a proven track record of success in academic roles, reflecting the comprehensive and dynamic nature of our program.

REQUIREMENTS

The PhD in business administration involves two years of formal courses established by each Department and approved by the doctoral committee. Students take a minimum of 45 credits during their program, including 27 credits in core courses, a 3-credit summer paper, and 15 credits in elective courses. Students should consult their faculty advisory group about the required courses and electives for which they should register.

Students should complete at least 39 credits within the first two years from matriculation. The remaining 6 credits should be completed during the third year.

Requirements for the accountancy concentration

Code	Title	Credits
The following 30 credits constitute the core requirements for the accountancy concentration*:
Four courses (12 credits) in research methods and quantitative analysis selected in consultation with the advisor based on the student's background and interests.
Four doctoral seminars (12 credits) in ACCY 8001 Doctoral Seminars covering important studies in the student's area of interest.
ACCY 8001	Doctoral Seminar
ACCY 8001	Doctoral Seminar
ACCY 8001	Doctoral Seminar

ACCY 8001	Doctoral Seminar
One additional doctoral-level seminar (3 credits) from outside the student's area of interest
Completion of a 3-credit summer research paper during the first or first and second summer, as required by the student's area of interest.
Electives
The remaining 15 credits required are taken in elective courses, selected in consultation with the student's faculty advisory group.
*Policies for core courses
In general, all core courses should be doctoral courses, i.e., those at the 8000 level. All courses must be taken for letter grades. Required courses cannot be waived without substitution except in unusual circumstances as determined on a case-by-case basis. Examples of unusual circumstances include students holding a specialized master's or doctoral degree where equivalent core courses were taken in a particular area (such as statistics or mathematics). Students may petition the associate dean of research and doctoral programs to substitute up to 12 credits of required courses with alternative courses approved by the faculty advisory group.

Comprehensive examination
After the student completes the coursework and the summer paper requirements, the faculty advisory group and department faculty administer a comprehensive examination. The format of the comprehensive examination is at the discretion of the advisory committee, subject to approval by the doctoral committee when evaluating the study plan. The comprehensive examination establishes the student's mastery of the current and classic literature. The comprehensive exam can be written, in-class, or take-home, and may include an oral component. Failure to pass the comprehensive examination in two attempts leads to termination from the program.
Dissertation
Following successful completion of the comprehensive examination, the student is considered a doctoral candidate, and may form a dissertation committee, and develop a dissertation proposal. During this stage, students prepare, submit, and defend a dissertation.
Other policies
All course work and required comprehensive examination must be completed within five years of matriculation. All program requirements must be completed within seven years of the date of matriculation.

The doctoral program is administered and supervised by the associate dean and the committee on doctoral studies. For more detailed information about this program, contact the GWSB Doctoral Program Office.
