GRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN ASSESSMENT, MEASUREMENT, AND TEACHING IN EDUCATION

Assessment, Testing, and Measurement (ATM) is a specialization within education and human development that combines statistical analysis, testing theory, and the study of human behavior, educational measurement, and evaluation. This 18-credit graduate certificate program is designed for individuals who are entering or advancing in positions associated with ATM in diverse settings as well as those who are preparing for admission to a master’s or PhD program in the field.

Specific admission requirements are shown on the Graduate Program Finder. (http://www.gwu.edu/all-graduate-programs)
