

POST-MASTER'S CERTIFICATE IN EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP AND ADMINISTRATION

The post-master's certificate in educational leadership and administration is designed for students who hold a master's degree and have at least one year of PK-12 instructional experience. Students are prepared to promote high-quality student achievement and become leaders in various public school-based and central office positions.

This accelerated program includes courses and PK-12 field experiences designed to meet administrative certification and licensure requirements in the District of Columbia, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, states that require the School Leaders Licensure Assessment (SLLA) for licensure, and other states that honor interstate compact agreements. Students may pursue the post-master's certificate coursework either in the classroom or in an online, distance learning format.

Visit the program website (<http://gsehd.gwu.edu/programs/post-masters-certificate-educational-leadership-and-administration/>) for additional information.
