

MASTER OF ARTS IN EDUCATION AND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT IN THE FIELD OF ISRAEL EDUCATION

The master of arts in education and human development in the field of Israel education provides rigorous academic preparation in the fields of experiential education and Israel studies towards the development of professional Israel educators. This unique integration of study enhances the content knowledge, conceptual approaches, and pedagogical methods of Israel educators serving schools, summer camps, college campus organizations, community centers and agencies, cultural institutions, immersive travel experiences, and other innovative educational settings. Coursework is designed to support direct application of learning into students' current workplaces.
