POST-MASTER'S CERTIFICATE IN EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP AND ADMINISTRATION

GW's Educational Leadership and Administration program has garnered national recognition from the Educational Leadership Constituent Council (ELCC) and is nationally accredited and recognized as a program of distinction by the National Council for Accreditation of Teacher Education (NCATE). Since 2018, the program has adopted and embedded the newer National Educational Leadership Preparation (NELP) standards required by the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP) in all of its licensure courses and internship experiences.

The Educational Leadership and Administration master's program is designed for the working PreK-12 professional. The program serves educators who work in a variety of diverse school communities and are interested in (i) PreK-12 school-based or central office leadership positions, (ii) PreK-12 school-based or central office supervisory positions, (iii) increased responsibility in PreK-12 teaching, and/or (iv) advanced levels of PreK-12 professional responsibility.

The post-master’s certificate (P-MC) satisfies the mandatory credit hours, course requirements, and field experiences that are part of the administrative licensure process in the District of Columbia, Commonwealth of Virginia, and many other states. (Before enrolling, applicants should review their state regulations for administrative licensure or certification to ensure the acceptability of this program.) The Educational Leadership and Administration licensure coursework and embedded internship opportunities prepare students to attain PreK-12 leadership positions in public or private schools or similar organizations.

ADMISSIONS

Admission deadlines:

- Fall - Rolling admissions
- Spring - Rolling admissions
- Summer - Rolling admissions

Recommendations: 2 recommendations from an academic instructor/advisor or someone who can speak of your academic abilities.

Prior academic records: Transcripts are required from all colleges and universities attended, whether or not credit was earned, the program was completed, or the credit appears as transfer credit on another transcript. Unofficial transcripts from all colleges and universities attended should be uploaded to your online application. Official transcripts are required only of applicants who are offered admission.

Transcripts from institutions outside the United States must be accompanied by an official transcript evaluation from an accredited independent evaluating agency. Please be sure you request a detailed evaluation that includes all course titles, credit hours, grade-point average (GPA), United States degree equivalency, and date of degree conferral. For a list of acceptable foreign credential evaluation services, please follow this link - https://graduate.admissions.gwu.edu/international-student-application-requirements/

Statement of purpose: In an essay of 250 to 500 words, state your purpose in undertaking graduate study at The George Washington University, describing your academic objectives, research interests, and career plans. Also discuss your related qualifications, including collegiate, professional, and community activities and any other substantial accomplishments not already mentioned in the application. Doctoral candidates are expected to write a more comprehensive essay of 750 to 1,200 words. In addition to the guidelines stated above, you should clearly indicate your primary and supporting fields of study and describe your research areas.

Additional requirements: A resumé and an interview with a program advisor are required.

The M.A. Ed.H.D., Post-Master’s Certificate, and Ed.S. require a minimum of one year of teaching experience.

International applicants only: Please follow this link - https://graduate.admissions.gwu.edu/international-student-application-requirements/ - to review the International Applicant Information carefully for details on required documents, earlier deadlines for applicants requiring an I-20 or DS-2019 from GW.
