

GRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

The graduate certificate in leadership development provides in-depth understanding of organizations as human systems and the practical knowledge required to improve organizational effectiveness through leadership and training. Students explore leadership as an individual ability as well as an organizational learning and development process.

Visit the program website (<https://gsehd.gwu.edu/programs/graduate-certificate-leadership-development/>) for additional information.

ADMISSIONS REQUIREMENTS

The following requirements must be fulfilled: 15 credits, including 6 credits in required courses, and 9 credits in elective courses.

Code	Title	Credits
Required
HOL 6700	Human Behavior and Learning in Organizations
or HOL 6701	Adult Learning
HOL 6704	Leadership in Organizations
Electives

9 credits in elective courses selected in consultation with the advisor.