The online master of arts in education and human development in interdisciplinary secondary transition services prepares you to be a change agent in teaching, leadership, and support roles. You will learn how to prepare youth with disabilities and at-risk youth to make successful transitions through high school to post-secondary education, employment and independent adulthood.

The program is aligned to the Council for Exceptional Children Advanced Professional Standards for Transition Specialists (2013).

This nationally-recognized program provides critical knowledge and experience in the ever-emerging field of secondary transition based upon legislative requirements, research, and evidence-based practices. With a strong social justice focus, you are prepared to effectively lead quality transition programs and services for all youth with disabilities in various settings.

Visit the program website (https://gsehd.gwu.edu/programs/masters-interdisciplinary-secondary-transition-services/) for additional information.

ADMISSIONS

Admission deadlines:
- Fall – Rolling admissions
- Spring – Rolling admissions
- Summer – Rolling admissions

Recommendations required: Two (2) recommendations

Prior academic records: Transcripts are required from all colleges and universities attended, whether or not credit was earned, the program was completed, or the credit appears as transfer credit on another transcript. Unofficial transcripts from all colleges and universities attended should be uploaded to your online application. Official transcripts are required only of applicants who are offered admission. Transcripts from institutions outside the United States must be accompanied by an official transcript evaluation from an accredited independent evaluating agency. Please be sure you request a detailed evaluation that includes all course titles, credit hours, grade-point average (GPA), United States degree equivalency, and date of degree conferral. See the list of acceptable foreign credential evaluation services (http://www.naces.org/members/).

Statement of purpose: In an essay of 250 to 500 words, state your purpose in undertaking graduate study at The George Washington University, describing your academic objectives, research interests, and career plans. Also discuss your related qualifications, including collegiate, professional, and community activities and any other substantial accomplishments not already mentioned in the application. A resumé is required.

Additional requirements:
- A resumé is required.

International applicants only: Please review International Applicant Information (http://graduate.admissions.gwu.edu/international-applicants/) carefully for details on required documents, earlier deadlines for applicants requiring an I-20 or DS-2019 from GW, and English language requirements.
