

DUAL MASTER OF ARTS IN EDUCATION AND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT IN THE FIELD OF INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION AND GRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN TESOL

The combined MAEd&HD in the field of international education (<http://bulletin.gwu.edu/education-human-development/masters-program/education-human-development-international-education/>) and graduate certificate in teaching English to speakers of other languages (TESOL) (<http://bulletin.gwu.edu/education-human-development/certificate/teaching-english-to-speakers-of-other-languages/>) degree program is designed for individuals who are entering or advancing in positions associated with training, education, adult learning, and development activities in diverse settings that require international understanding. Students acquire knowledge of other countries and cultures, using the education system as a means of interpreting and translating knowledge across cultures, and analysis of the formal and non-formal school systems as they reflect history, culture, development, values, contemporary concerns, and future trends. The addition of the TESOL certificate is designed to prepare pre-service and in-service teachers for working with English learners in classrooms within and beyond the United States.
