

DUAL MAED&HD IN CURRICULUM AND INSTRUCTION, SECONDARY EDUCATION CONCENTRATION, AND GRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN INCORPORATING INTERNATIONAL PERSPECTIVES IN EDUCATION

The dual master of arts in education and human development in the field of curriculum and instruction with a concentration in secondary education (<http://bulletin.gwu.edu/education-human-development/curriculum-pedagogy/curriculum-instruction-secondary-education/>) and graduate certificate in incorporating international perspectives in education (<http://bulletin.gwu.edu/education-human-development/educational-leadership/certificate-incorporating-international-perspectives/>) (IIPE) program prepares teachers and other educational personnel for increased responsibilities in the planning, implementation, research, and evaluation of curriculum and instruction. The program of study includes curriculum development, research and evaluation of instructional practice, teacher education, work with special populations, and school policy and leadership. The 12 credits earned in the certificate program may be applied toward the master's. The addition of the IIPE certificate is designed to allow students to pursue individual interests while providing a foundation in internationalization as it relates to school systems and the development of curriculum in K-12 settings.
