The combined Undergraduate Bachelor’s Degree Completion and Master’s Degree Completion programs provide a comprehensive educational experience for students interested in pursuing careers in the fields of nutrition science and public health. The program is designed to provide a strong foundation in the principles of nutrition science and public health, as well as the skills and knowledge necessary to succeed in these fields. The program is open to students who have completed a bachelor’s degree in a related field or who have achieved a sufficient level of academic preparation. The program is offered in both online and classroom-based formats, allowing students to choose the option that best suits their individual needs and preferences.
