

MINORS

Elliott School students may take a minor, such as business, economics, or languages, in other schools of the University.

Students from other schools of the University may take a minor in international affairs in the Elliott School. Contact the Office of Academic Advising (<http://elliott.gwu.edu/undergraduate-advising>) in the Elliott School.

The minor is 18 to 21 credits, plus 0 to 8 credits of foreign language, and consists of the requirements listed below.

Students must receive a C- or better in all courses taken to satisfy the minor.

Foreign Language Requirement

Students must prove first-year proficiency in a modern foreign language by course work or examination (0 to 8 credits).

A student who thinks they are beyond the first year of a modern foreign language, but cannot demonstrate this by course work at GW, should contact their Elliott School academic advisor (<http://elliott.gwu.edu/academics/ugrad/advising/advisors.cfm>).
