GRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN PUBLIC RELATIONS

The public relations graduate certificate program takes advantage of GW's connections in the nation’s capital, focusing on the public policy system and the advocacy role played by PR firms and PR operations in corporations and associations. The Graduate School of Political Management engages experts in both the PR and political arenas to serve as faculty. Students graduate prepared for professional advancement in the field.

The public relations graduate certificate program consists of 6 courses (18 credits). Coursework completed for the certificate can be applied toward the strategic public relations master’s degree. Classes meet Monday through Thursday evenings at GW’s Arlington Education Center. The program also may be completed online or in a hybrid format.

Visit the program website (https://gspm.gwu.edu/strategic-public-relations-0/) for additional information.

ADMISSIONS

Admission deadlines:
- Fall - July 1
- Spring - November 1
- Summer - April 15

Recommendations required:
Two (2) letters of recommendation from professional and/or academic references; at least one academic reference for those who graduated within the last five years.

Prior academic records:
Transcripts are required from all colleges and universities attended, whether or not credit was earned, the program was completed, or the credit appears as transfer credit on another transcript. Unofficial transcripts from all colleges and universities attended should be uploaded to your online application. Official transcripts are required only of applicants who are offered admission.

Transcripts from institutions outside the United States must be accompanied by an official transcript evaluation from an accredited independent evaluating agency. Please be sure you request a detailed, course-by-course evaluation that includes all course titles, credit hours, grade-point average (GPA), United States degree equivalency, and date of degree conferral. Please see the list of acceptable foreign credential evaluation services.

Statement of purpose:
In an essay of 250-500 words, state your purpose in undertaking graduate study in this field and describe your academic objectives, research interests, and career plans. Also, discuss your related qualifications, including collegiate, professional, and community activities, as well as any other substantial accomplishments not already mentioned on the application form.

Additional requirement:
A resumé.

International applicants only:
International students requesting a student visa from GW are not eligible to apply for this program.
