

GRADUATE SCHOOL OF POLITICAL MANAGEMENT

The Graduate School of Political Management, through the College of Professional Studies, offers the master of professional studies in the fields of political management, legislative affairs, and strategic public relations. Each program has a prerequisite of a bachelor's degree with a minimum B grade-point average from an accredited college or university and is subject to the CPS regulations (<https://cps.gwu.edu>) that appear under the respective programs. In addition, graduate certificate programs are offered in digital politics, public relations, PACs and political management, and global public relations. The master of professional studies in political communication and governance; and graduate certificates in both political management and strategic governance, and strategic communications and campaigns are offered in Spanish to closed cohorts of students in Latin America and in Spain.
