MASTER OF ARTS IN THE FIELD OF CHINESE LANGUAGE AND CULTURE

The only master's degree program of its kind in the greater Washington, DC, area, the MA in Chinese language and culture offers students the opportunity to deepen intellectual and cultural understanding of China and to learn the Chinese language. The program prepares students for careers in fields such as academia, consulting, government, business, nonprofit, and education. Being in the heart of the nation’s capital, the program provides students with the opportunity to interact with many leading organizations, business headquarters, consulting firms, and government and media agencies. A variety of extracurricular activities are available to enrich the student learning experience.

Program highlights include:

- Customized curriculum to suit personal interests and career goals.
- Close mentorship from well-established scholars and award-winning teachers in the department.
- Competitive teaching assistant or internship positions.
- Numerous China-related events and lectures on and off campus.
- Preparation for the pursuit of either a professional career or doctoral studies.
- Access to the many resources available in Washington, DC.
- Potential for building a professional network to enhance career opportunities.

Visit the program website (https://eall.columbian.gwu.edu/ma-chinese-language-culture/) for additional information.

ADMISSIONS

Admissions

Admission deadlines:
Fall - February 1: Priority consideration for admission and funding; April 1: Guaranteed review for admission and consideration for funding, if available. (Applications for admission will continue to be accepted after April 1, when space remains available in the program.)
Spring – October 1

Standardized test scores:
The Test of English as a Foreign Language (TOEFL), the academic International English Language Testing System (IELTS), or the PTE Academic is required of all applicants except those who hold a bachelor's, master's, or doctoral degree from a college or university in the United States or from an institution located in a country in which English is the official language, provided English was the language of instruction.

Minimum scores for the program are:
- Academic IELTS: an overall band score of 6.0 with no individual score below 5.0; or
- TOEFL: 550 on paper-based or 80 on Internet-based; or
- PTE Academic: 53

Applicants to the M.A. who do not meet minimum English language requirements may be eligible for our full-time Applied English Language program.

Recommendations:
