MINOR IN ECONOMICS

The minor in economics program offers students a way to enhance their primary field of interest with in-demand skills in economics, business statistics, and management sciences. The minor requires 24 credits in courses such as Macroeconomic Theory, Principles of Economics, and Calculus for the Social and Management Sciences. An economics minor pairs well with fields including physics, engineering, computer science, business, pre-med, biology, and more.

REQUIREMENTS

The following requirements must be fulfilled: 24 credits, including 12 credits in required courses and 12 credits in elective courses.
