The Women’s, Gender, and Sexuality Studies Program offers a dual bachelor of arts with a major in women’s, gender, and sexuality studies and master of arts in women’s, gender, and sexuality studies degree program. The program allows students to take 12 graduate credits as part of their undergraduate program, thereby decreasing the number of credits normally required for the master’s degree. All requirements for both degrees must be fulfilled.

Students interested in the dual degree program should confer with the department’s graduate adviser early in their junior year. Visit the program website for additional information.
