MASTER OF ARTS IN EDUCATION AND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT, INDIVIDUALIZED PROGRAM

The master of arts in education and human development individualized degree program provides students with an opportunity to develop a program of study that cuts across existing fields, both within the Graduate School of Education and Human Development (GSEHD) and between GSEHD and other schools and departments of the University as well as the Consortium of Universities. It is designed to meet specific career and professional objectives of applicants who have unique needs. The flexible program structure can be tailored to prepare for new and emerging fields in education and human development. This program is available (with program advisor approval) within or across the five departments within GSEHD.

Visit the Graduate School of Education and Human Development (https://gsehd.gwu.edu/academics) website for additional information.

REQUIREMENTS

This Bulletin covers the degree requirements for students matriculating in the current academic year. Students who matriculated before the current year can find their requirements in the relevant archived Bulletin (https://bulletin.gwu.edu/archives/).

Code	Title	Credits
3 credits in research courses
27 credits in courses that meet student's program goals and objectives

All work toward the degree must be specified at the time the initial program is developed.