MASTER OF ARTS IN EDUCATION AND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT IN THE FIELD OF ORGANIZATIONAL LEADERSHIP AND LEARNING

The master’s degree in organizational leadership and learning explores connections between people, organizations, and learning processes using a systematic change approach. The curriculum combines leadership and learning theory, applied research skills, and strategies to inform impactful decision making. Through hands-on experience in various leadership domains—often exploring individual, group, organizational, societal, and global issues—students develop practical expertise. This expertise enables students to comprehend organizational challenges, devise effective solutions, and facilitate meaningful change.

ADMISSIONS

Admission deadlines:
- Fall - Rolling admissions (January 15 to be considered for merit-based, on-campus tuition support)
- Spring - Rolling admissions
- Summer – Rolling admissions

Standardized tests: Not required.

Recommendations: Two (2) recommendations (preferably one from a faculty member and the other from a professional supervisor)

Prior academic records:
- Transcripts are required from all colleges and universities attended, whether or not credit was earned, the program was completed, or the credit appears as transfer credit on another transcript. Unofficial transcripts from all colleges and universities attended should be uploaded to your online application. Official transcripts are required only of applicants who are offered admission.
- Transcripts from institutions outside the United States must be accompanied by an official transcript evaluation from an accredited independent evaluating agency. Please be sure you request a detailed evaluation that includes all course titles, credit hours, grade-point average (GPA), United States degree equivalency, and date of degree conferral. For a list of acceptable foreign credential evaluation services, please click here (https://www.naces.org/members.php).

Statement of purpose: In an essay of 250 to 500 words, state your purpose in undertaking graduate study at The George Washington University, describing your academic objectives, research interests, and career plans. Also discuss your related qualifications, including collegiate, professional, and community activities and any other substantial accomplishments not already mentioned in the application.

Additional requirements:
- A résumé is required.
- International applicants only: Please review International Applicant Information (https://graduate.admissions.gwu.edu/international-student-application-requirements) carefully for details on required documents, earlier deadlines for applicants requiring an I-20 or DS-2019 from GW, and English language requirements.
