DUAL MASTER OF ARTS IN EDUCATION AND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT IN THE FIELD OF INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION AND GRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN ASSESSMENT, TESTING, AND MEASUREMENT IN EDUCATION

The dual MAEd&HD in the field of international education (https://bulletin.gwu.edu/education-human-development/educational-leadership/master-international-education/) and graduate certificate in assessment, testing, and measurement in education (https://bulletin.gwu.edu/education-human-development/educational-leadership/certificate-assessment-testing-measurement/) (ATM) is designed for individuals who are entering or advancing in positions associated with training, education, adult learning, and development activities in diverse settings that require international and intercultural understanding. Students are equipped with the knowledge and skills to become informed and active scholar-practitioners in international education, with opportunities to specialize in international higher education, international education development, and global education. The addition of the ATM certificate is designed to prepare students with specific research skills in measurement and assessment.

The 12 credits earned in the graduate certificate can be counted toward requirements for the master's degree. All requirements for both programs must be fulfilled.
