GRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN SECONDARY TRANSITION LEADERSHIP

Through the graduate certificate in secondary transition leadership students gain critical knowledge and experience in the dynamic field of secondary transition through a fully online curriculum that draws from legislative requirements, research, and evidence-based practices. The program’s strong social justice focus prepares students to effectively lead high-quality transition programs and services for all youth with disabilities in various settings. The secondary transition leadership program has been accredited by the Council for Exceptional Children’s Division on Career Development and Transition (DCDT). Graduates of DCDT accredited programs are eligible for certification as a DCDT transition specialist.

ADMISSIONS

Admission deadlines: Fall – Rolling admissions

Spring – Rolling admissions

Summer – Rolling admissions

Recommended: Two (2) recommendations required:

Prior academic records:

Transcripts are required from all colleges and universities attended, whether or not credit was earned, the program was completed, or the credit appears as transfer credit on another transcript. Unofficial transcripts from all colleges and universities attended should be uploaded to your online application. Official transcripts are required only of applicants who are offered admission.

Transcripts from institutions outside the United States must be accompanied by an official transcript evaluation from an accredited independent evaluating agency. Please be sure you request a detailed evaluation that includes all course titles, credit hours, grade-point average (GPA), United States degree equivalency, and date of degree conferral. For a list of acceptable foreign credential evaluation services, please follow this link: https://www.naces.org/members/.

Statement of purpose:

In an essay of 250 to 500 words, state your purpose in undertaking graduate study at The George Washington University, describing your academic objectives, research interests, and career plans. Also discuss your related qualifications, including collegiate, professional, and community activities and any other substantial accomplishments not already mentioned in the application.

Additional requirements:

A resumé is required.

International applicants only:
