

MINOR IN PUBLIC HEALTH

Minor fields of study have been established at George Washington University to provide opportunities for formal inter/intra-school study. Students must be enrolled in a degree program and must be in good standing to be eligible to take a minor field of study in another school. Upon successful completion of all requirements, the minor field of study and the courses taken in support of the minor are entered on the student's transcript. To apply for the minor in public health, students must have a minimum GPA of 2.75.

Visit the GWSPH minor program website (<http://publichealth.gwu.edu/programs/public-health-bs/>) for additional information.

ADMISSIONS

Information on the admission process is available on the Office of Undergraduate Admissions website (<https://undergraduate.admissions.gwu.edu/>). Applications may be submitted via the Common Application (<https://go.gwu.edu/commonapp/>).
