

MINOR IN GRAPHIC DESIGN

The minor in graphic design introduces students to the core methods, processes, and skills of visual and communication design. The program helps students develop the skills needed to analyze and participate in the execution of design and brand strategies in diverse media formats, including print, web, motion, and mobile devices.

Visit the program website (<https://corcoran.gwu.edu/graphic-design-undergraduate/>) for additional information.

REQUIREMENTS

The following requirements must be fulfilled: 21 credits, including 18 credits in required courses and one 3-credit elective course.

Code	Title	Credits
Required
CAH 3150	Theories and History of Graphic Design
CGD 1090	Design Fundamentals I
CGD 1091	Design Fundamentals II
CGD 2050	Typography I
CGD 2060	Typography II
CGD 3020	Web Design
Electives
One course selected from the following:
CGD 2020	Communication Design (or second CGD 3030 Special Topics course, Digital Illustration)
CGD 3010	Special Topics in Design	