

MINOR IN MUSIC

The minor in music is designed for students in another major field who wish to add to their experience and knowledge of music.

Through introductory courses in music theory, music history, and performance, the minor develops students' scholarship through coursework that provides a historical context as well as experience in music performance. Students who wish to declare the minor should contact the program about the application process: cmus@gwu.edu.

Visit the program website (<https://corcoran.gwu.edu/music/>) for additional information.
