

GRADUATE CERTIFICATE IN LITERACY EDUCATION

CPED 6628

Literacies in Informal Learning Environments

The graduate certificate in literacy education provides students opportunities to learn about teaching and learning principles of interdisciplinary reading, writing, and viewing texts in and out of schools. Coursework takes advantage of resources near campus, such as national museums, memorials, and the Library of Congress.

Visit the program website (<https://gsehd.gwu.edu/programs/graduate-certificate-literacy-education/>) for additional information.

ADMISSIONS

List all -Online Application requirements for admission to the program (e.g., course and degree prerequisites, standardized test scores, GPA requirements).

-Resume

-Statement of Purpose

-2 Letters of Recommendation

-Transcripts

-Application Fee

*Additional application requirements may exist for international applicants (<https://gsehd.gwu.edu/admissions/international-applicants> (<https://gsehd.gwu.edu/admissions/international-applicants/>))

REQUIREMENTS

The following requirements must be fulfilled: 12 credits in required courses and completion of a portfolio to be evaluated during the final semester of study.

Code	Title	Credits
------	-------	---------

Required

Courses must be taken in the order shown.

CPED 6691	Interdisciplinary Adolescent Literacies
-----------	-----------------------------------------	--

CPED 6624	Foundations and Research of Literacy and Reading Education
-----------	------------------------------------------------------------	--

CPED 6223	Interdisciplinary Elementary School Literacies
-----------	------------------------------------------------	--