

MINOR IN COMPUTER SCIENCE

The minor in computer science is for students in other GW schools as well as other majors within the School of Engineering and Applied Science. The curriculum consists of two segments: core courses and electives whose purpose is to provide the student with depth in an area of computer science. 18 credits are required for the minor.

Visit the program website (<https://www.cs.seas.gwu.edu/minor-computer-science/>) for additional information.

ADMISSION
