

MASTER OF PROFESSIONAL STUDIES IN THE FIELD OF PARALEGAL STUDIES

Program Director: T. Marsh

George Washington University's ABA-approved master of professional studies in paralegal studies provides students with the knowledge and skills employers seek, including those in written and oral communication; critical thinking and analysis; problem-solving; technological savvy; and professionalism. Courses are designed in conjunction with the legal, governmental, business, financial, and international communities to ensure they are relevant and marketable. As a result, program graduates are prepared to work in demanding legal environments.

Students also may combine the graduate certificate in paralegal studies with a graduate certificate in healthcare corporate compliance for a master of professional studies in paralegal studies with a concentration in healthcare corporate compliance.

Visit the program website (<https://www.cps.gwu.edu/paralegal-studies-master-professional-studies/>) for additional information.

ADMISSIONS

Admission deadlines: Fall Priority Deadline - May 1

Fall Final Deadline - August 1

Spring Priority Deadline - October 1

Spring Final Deadline - December 1

Recommendations: One (1) recommendation (preferably from a current supervisor) required:

Prior academic records: Transcripts are required from all colleges and universities attended, whether or not credit was earned, the program was completed, or the credit appears as transfer credit on another transcript. Unofficial transcripts from all colleges and universities attended should be uploaded to your online application. Official transcripts are required only of applicants who are offered admission.

Transcripts from institutions outside the United States must be accompanied by an official transcript evaluation from an accredited independent evaluating agency. Please be sure you request a detailed, course-by-course evaluation that includes all course titles, credit hours, grade-point average (GPA), United States degree equivalency, and date of degree conferral. Please see the list of acceptable international credential evaluation services (<https://www.naces.org/members.php>).

Statement of purpose: In an essay of 250-500 words, state your purpose in undertaking graduate study in this field and describe your academic objectives, research interests, and career plans. Also, discuss your related qualifications, including collegiate, professional, and community activities, as well as any other substantial accomplishments not already mentioned on the application form.

Additional requirements: A resumé.

International applicants only: Please review International Applicant Information (<https://www.cps.gwu.edu/international-student-admissions> (<https://www.cps.gwu.edu/international-student-admissions/>)) carefully for details on required documents, earlier deadlines for applicants requiring an I-20 or DS-2019 from GW, and English language requirements.
