

MASTER OF PROFESSIONAL STUDIES IN THE FIELD OF POLITICAL MANAGEMENT, GLOBAL POLITICS CONCENTRATION

REQUIREMENTS

In addition to the required curriculum for the MPS in political management (<https://bulletin.gwu.edu/professional-studies/graduate-programs/political-management/>), students pursuing the global politics concentration must take at least one global perspective residency, at least four of the elective course options listed below, and two other elective courses of their choosing.

Code	Title	Credits
Required
CPS 6200	Global Perspective Residencies
Electives
Four of the following preapproved elective courses:
PMGT 6416	International Lobbying
PMGT 6442	Campaigns Around the World
PMGT 6428	Cultural Aspects of Global Engagement
PMGT 6424	Comparative Politics
PMGT 6477	Political Risk Assessment
PSPR 6224	Global Public Relations and Public Affairs: Strategy and Practice

And two other elective courses selected from across the University with the advisor's approval.